Duan Luapun :-- To-day has been a sad and yet an interesting day with us. The Light Guards, Capt. F. Sawyer, are full, and another company nearly recruited under Lient. Worcester. Our streets have been througed all day with anxious fathers, moth ers, sisters and brothers whose hearts throl for freedom and who feel that our civil and religious liberties are at stake. The companies formed at 2 o'clock P. M. proceeded by martial music and the Norwalk Bugle Band and marched through Main street, down Prospect to the Common in front o the depot, where under the large and elegant flag owned by the railroad boys, 54 guns were fired by the Norwalk Gun Squad, after which thrilling and interesting speeches were made from Messes.
